NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in Fall, in its twenty-second year, has attained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any other newspaper ever published in America. Though it has suffered, in common with other journals, from the volunteering and departure of tens of thousands of its patrons to serve in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, was as follows:

Daily 59,125
Semi-Weekly 17,259
Weekly 148,000

Aggregate 216,375

Unquestionably a journal of News and of Literature, The Tribune has politically characteristics which are well characterized by the single word Republican. It is Republican in its hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men" and in its manful assertion of the equal and inalienable rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness"—Republican in its stern, earnest, defiant hostility to the scheme and effort of the Slave Power, from the Annexation of Texas to the great Rebellion, to grasp the empire of the New World and wield the resources of our country for its own aggrandizement—Republican in its antagonism to the export of the Old World, who dare lift in the ports and channels of this free trust upon us by their Aristocratic counterpart the overthrow and ruin of the Model Republic—Republican, in its earnest, faithful and effort, that this atrocious Rebellion must result in the signal overthrow of its authors, and the final establishment of such rights and safeguards throughout the whole extent of our country, that Liberty and Union shall indeed "one and inseparable" henceforth and forever.

The Tribune devotes attention in brief limits, and to some extent in full to Education, Temperance, Agriculture, Inventions, and whatever else may minister to the spiritual and material progress and well being of mankind; but for the present its energies and its columns are mainly devoted to the invigoration and success of the War for the Union. Its special correspondents accompany every considerable army and report every important incident of that great struggle; we trust to results in the glorious triumph of the Union cause and in the restoration of Peace to our distracted country. We believe that not a few will prefer a fuller or more accurate view of the progress and character of this tremendous conflict be found through the regular columns of the Tribune. And we solicit the co-operation of friends of the National cause, which is as much theirs as that of any Editor, and as dear to us as to them.

A MOTHER'S WAITING.

When he comes back all glorious,
With the love-light in his eye,
From the battle-field victorious,
Who'll be happier than I?
See, the big arm chair is waiting,
Vacant still, in its old place—
Time! press quickly on the hours
Till I see his pleasant face!

He was too young, they told me,
To march against the foe:
Yet, when his country needed aid,
His mother bade him go!
'Twere meet slaves should tremble
Whom tyrants hold in thrall;
But my boy was Freeman born—
He went at Freedom's call.

My small weak hand would waver
The shortest sword to bear,
But he stands ready in the ranks,
And holds his musket there.
My faint heart would falter
The battle ground to see,
But his is strong in Freedom's might—
He fights for her and me.

I am watching and waiting,
As mothers watch and wait,
Whose sons are in the army now,
And it is growing late;
My life's past its morning,
It's near sunset in the sky—
Oh! I long once more to clasp him
In my arms before I die.

Yet farther off the army goes—
He will return no more,
Till our glorious flag is free again
To float o'er sea and shore;
Where'er it waved in days gone by,
Its folds again shall rest,
From the depths of the lowest valley
To the highest mountain crest.

And he, my boy, my darling,
The pride of my old heart!
Where'er his place may be, I know
He will fulfil his part.
Not until the war is over
Shall we meet in fond embrace—
Time! press swiftly on the hours
Till I see his pleasant face!

America the Old World.—Professor Agassiz begins, in the number of the Atlantic, a new series of scientific articles under the title, "America the Old World," in which he maintains that the American continent has been falsely denominated the New World. "Here was the first dry land lifted out of the waters, here the first shore washed by the ocean that enveloped all the earth besides; and while Europe was represented only by islands rising here and there above the sea, America already stretched an unbroken line of land from Nova Scotia to the far West."

A Little Traveller.—A little girl about twelve years of age named Annie Morley, arrived in the city yesterday from the interior of Minnesota. She has travelled all the way from Minnesota alone. She was a witness to one of the most inhuman Indian massacres which lately took place in that State and saw her father murdered by a set of savages. She has a vivid recollection of the horrible scene all the particlars of which she relates in an intelligent manner.—She is on her way to Fayette county Pa. where her relations reside.—[Wheeling Intel.

☞ A New York letter says Stewart has the credit of buying up a great class of goods sold. He has warehouses all over the city crowded with goods. He will sell only a bale at a time. Other men can buy goods; but Stewart is the only man that can buy and hold. He sells never from necessity; but only when he chooses. Old Girard is reported to have had a dispute with one of the rich men of the Penn City. "I can buy you and sell you again, Girard," said the angry merchant. "And I can buy you and keep you," was Girard's response.

Knights of the Golden Circle.—The Knights of the Golden Circle in Indiana are having a bad time of it. A few nights ago an officer of the Sixty ninth Indiana regiment, with a squad of men, entered a meeting of the Knights in Owen county, in search of deserters—rightly believing they would naturally seek shelter in such a quarter—and actually dispersed the assemblage. Another violation of "constitutional rights," calling for indignant protest from the whole family of copperheads!,

Burnside's Creed.—In his recent visit to Providence, R. I., Gen Burnside, with no ovation, because he desired none, appearing every where in citizens' dress, made one incidental remark which is worth preserving, as covering the whole ground and showing the patriot and hero in one.—When asked what he thought of this measure or that movement he replied: "My creed is short. The goverment must be sustained; the rebellion must and will be put down."

☞ A wag wants to know whether if the devil were to die, the newspapers would not eulogize his character. If they didn't, the editors would be likely to get unceremonious orders from some of the friends of the deceased—"Stop my paper."

THE CONSCRIPTION ACT.

An act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes;

Whereas, There now exists in the United States an insurrection and rebellion against the authority thereof, and it is, under the United States, the duty of the government to suppress insurrection and rebellion, to guarantee to each State a republican form of government, and to preserve the public tranquility; and whereas, for these high purposes, a military force is indespensable, to raise and support which all persons ought willingly to contribute; and whereas no service can be more praiseworthy and honorable than that which is rendered for the maintenance of the Constitution and Union, and the consequent preservation of free government, therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembeld, That all able bodied male citizens of the United States, and persons of foreign birth who shall have declared on oath their intention to become citizens under and in pursuance of the laws thereof, between the ages of twenty and forty-five years, except as hereinafter excepted, are hereby declared to constitute the national forces, and shall be liable to perform the military duty in the service of the United States when called out by the President for that purpose.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the following persons be, and they are hereby, excepted and exempt from the provisions of this act, and shall not be liable to military duty under the same, to wit: Such as are rejected as physically unfit for the service, viz: first, the Vice President of the United States, the various courts of the United States, the heads of the various executive departments of the government, and the governors of the several States. Second, the only son of a widow dependent upon his labor for support. Third, the only son of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent upon his labor for support—Fourth, where there are two or more sons of aged or infirm parents subject to draft, the father, or if he be dead, the mother, may elect which son shall be exempt. Fifth, the only brother of children not twelve years old, having neither father or mother, dependent upon his labor for support. Sixth, the father of motherless children under twelve years of age dependent upon his labor for support. Seventh, where there are a father and sons in the same family or household, and two of them are in the military service of the United States as commissioned officers, musicians or privates, the residue of such family and household, not exceeding two, shall be exempt. And no persons but such as are herein excepted shall be exempt; Provided, however, That no persons who has been convicted of felony shall be enrolled or permitted to serve in said forces.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the national forces of the United States, not now in the military service, enrolled under this act, shall be divided into two classes, the first of which shall comprise all persons subject to do military duty between the ages of twenty and thirty-five years, and all unmarried persons subject to do military duty above the age of thirty-five and under the age of forty-five; and the second class shall compromise all other persons subject to do military duty; and shall not, in any district be called into the service of the United States until those of the first class shall have been called.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That, for greater convenience in enrolling, calling out, and organizing the national forces, and for the arrest of deserters and spies of the enemy, the United States shall be divided into districts, of which the district of Columbia shall constitute one, each territory of the United States shall constitute one or more, as the President shall direct, and each congressional district of the respective States as fixed by law of the State next preceding the enrollment, shall constitute one; Provided, That in States which have not by their laws been divied into two or more congressional districts, the President of the United States shall divide the same into so many enrollment districts as he may deem fit and convenient.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That for each of said districts there shall be appointed, by the President, a Provost Marshal, with rank, pay, and emoluments of a captain of cavalry, or an officer of said rank shall be detailed by the President, who shall be under the direction and subject to the orders of a provost general, appointed or detailed by the President of the United State, whose office shall be at the seat of Government, forming a separate bureau of the War Department, whose rank, pay, and emoluments shall be those of Colonel of Cavalry.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the provost marshall general, with the approval of the Secretary of War, to make rules and regulations for the government of his subordinates; to furnish them with the names and residences of all deserters from the army, or any of the land forces in the service of the United States, including the militia, when reported to him by the commanding officer; to communicate to them all orders of the President in reference to calling out the national forces; to furhish proper blanks and instructions for enrolling and drafting to file and preserve copies of all enrollment lists; to require stated reports of all proceedings on the part of the subordinates; to audit all accounts connected with the service under his direction; and to perform such other duties as the President may prescribe in carrying out the provisions of this act.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the provost marshals to arrest all deserters, whether regulars, volunteers, militiamen, or person called into the service under this or any other act of Congress, wherever they may be found, and to send them to the nearest military post; to detect, seize and confine spies of the enemy who shall, without unreasonable delay, be delivered to the custody of the general commanding the department in which they may be arrested, to be tried as soon as the exigencies of the service permit; to obey all lawful orders and regulations of the provost marshal general, and such as may be prescribed by law, concerning the enrollment and calling into service of the national forces.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That it, each of said district there shall be a board of enrollment; to be composed of the provost marshal, as president, and two other persons, to be appointed by the President of the United States, one of whom shall be a licensed and practicing physicians and surgeon.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said board to divide the district into subdistricts of convenient size, if they shall deem it necessary, not exceeding two, without the direction of the Secretary of War, and to appoint, on or before the tenth day of March next, and in each alternate year thereafter, an enrolling officer for each subdistrict, and to furnish him with proper blanks and instructions; and he shall immediately proceed to enroll all persons subject to military duty, noting their respective places of residence, ages on the first day of July following and their occupation, and shall, on or before the first day of April report the same to the board of enrollment, to be consolidated into a list, a copy of which shall be transmitted to the provost marshal [illegible] the first day of May succeeding the enrollment. Provided, Nevertheless, That, if, from any cause, the duties prescribed by this section cannot be performed within the times specified then the same shall be performed as soon there after as practicable.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the enrollment of each class shall be made separately, and they shall only embrace those whose ages shall be on the first day of July thereafter between twenty and forty five years.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That all persons thus enrolled shall be subject for two years after the first day of July succeeding the enrollmen. to be called into the military service of the United States, and to continue in service for three years, or during the war; and when called into service shall be placed on the same footing, in all respects, as volunteers during the present rebellion, not however, exceeding the term of three years, including advance pay and bounty as now provided by law.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That whenever it may be necessary to call out the national forces for military service, the President is hereby authorized to assign to each district the number of men to be furnished by said district, and thereupon the enrolling board shall, under the direction of the President make a draft of the required number, and fifty per centum in addition and shall make an exact and complete roll of the names of the persons so drawn, and of the order in which were drawn, so that the first drawn may stand first upon the said roll, and the second may stand second, and so on. And the persons so drawn shall be notified of the same within ten days thereafter, by a written or printed notice, to be served personally or by leaving a copy at the last place of residence, requiring them to appear at a designated rendezvous to report for duty. In assigning to the districts the number of men to be furnished therefrom, the President shall take into consideration the number of volunteers and militia furnished by and from the several States in which said districts are situated, and the period of their service since the commencement of the present rebellion, and shall so make said assignment as to equalize the numbers among the districts of the several States, considering and allowing for the numbers already furnished as aforesaid and for the time of their service.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted That any person drafted and notified to appear as aforesaid, furnish an acceptable substitute to take his place in the draft; or he may pay to such person as the Secretary of War may authorize to receive it, such sum, not exceeding three hundred dollars, as the Secretary may determine, for the procuration of such substitute, which sum shall be fixed at a uniform rate by a general order made at the time of ordering a draft for any State territory; and thereupon such person so furnishing the substitute or paying the money, shall be discharged from further liability under that draft. And any person failing to report after due service of notice, herein, prescribed, without furnishing a substitute, or paying the required sum therefor, shall be deemed a deserter, and shall be arrested by the provost marshal and sent to the nearest military post for trial by court martial, unless, upon proper showing that he is not liable to military duty, the board of enrollment shall relieve him from the draft.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That all drafted persons shall, on arriving at the rendezvous, be carefully inspected by the surgeon of the board, who shall truly report to the board the physical condition of each one; and all persons drafted and claiming exemption from military duty on account of disability, or any other cause, shall present their claims to be exempted to the board, whose decision shall be final.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That any surgeon charged with the duty of such inspection who shall receive from any person whomsoever any money or other valuable thing, or agree, directly or indirectly, to receive the same to his own or another's use, for making an imperfect inspection or a false or incorrect report, or who shall wilfully neglect to make a faithful inspection and true report, shall be tried by a court martial, and on conviction thereof, be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars nor less than two hundred, and be imprisoned at the discretion of the court, and be cashiered and dismissed from the service.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted That as soon as the required number of able-bodied men liable to do military duty shall be obtained from the list of those drafted, the remainder shall be discharged. And all drafted persons reporting at the place of rendezvous shall be allowed travelling pay from their places of residence; and all persons discharged at the place of rendezvous shall be allowed pay to their place of residence; and all expenses connected with the enrollment and drafting, under such regulation as the President of the United States shall prescribe; and all expenses connected with the arrest and return of deserters to their regiments, or such other duties as the provost martial shall be called to perform, shall be paid from the appropriation for arresting deserters, under such regulations as the President of the United States shall prescribe: Provided, The provost marshals shall in no case receive commutation for transportation or for fuel and quarters, but only for forage, when not furnished by the government, together with actual expenses of postage, stationary, and clerk hire authorized by the provost marshal general.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted That any person enrolled and drafted according to the provisions of this act who shall furnish an acceptable substitute, shall thereupon receive from the board of enrollment a certificate of discharge from such draft, which shall exempt him from military duty during time for which he was drafted; and such substitute shall be entitled to the same pay and allowances provided by law as if he had been originally drafted into the service of the United States.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That such of the volunteers and militia, now in the service of the United States as may re-enlist to serve one year, unless sooner discharged, after the expiration of their present term of service, shall be entitled to a bounty of fifty dollars, one half of which is to be paid upon such re-enlistment, and the balance at the expiration of term of re-enlistment. And such as may reenlist to serve for two years, unless sooner discharged, after the expiration of their present term of enlistment, shall receive, upon such re-enlistment, twenty five dollars of the one hundred dollars bounty for enlistment, provided by the fifth section of the act approved twety-second of July, eighteen hundred and sixty one, entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the law and protecting public property."

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That whenever a regiment of volunteers of the same arm, from the same State, is reduced to one-half the number prescribed by law, the President may direct the consolidation of the companies of such regiment: Provided, That no company so formed shall exceed the maximum number prescribed by law. When such consolidation is made, the regimental officers shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction in the number of companies.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That whenever a regiment is reduced below the minimum number allowed by law, no officers shall be appointed in such regiment beyond those necessary for the command of such reduced number.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That so much of the fifth section of the act approved seventeenth of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one entitled "An act to amend an act calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union," and so forth, as requires approval of the president to carry into execution sentence of court martial, be, and the same is hereby repealed as far as relates to carrying into execution the sentence of any court martial against any person convicted as a spy as deserter, or of mutiny or murder; and hereafter sentences in punishment of these offences may be carried into execution upon the approval of the commanding general in the field.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That courts martial shall have power to sentence officers who themselves from their commands with leave, to be reduced to the ranks to serve three years or during the war.

Sec. 23. And be it further enacted, That the clothes, arms, military outfits, and accountrements, furnished by the United States to any soldier, shall not be sold, bartered, exchanged, pledged loaned or given away no person not a soldier, or duly authorized officer of the United States who has possession of any such clothes, arms, military outfits or accountrements, furnished as aforesaid, which have been the subjects of any such sale, barter, exchange, pledge loan, or gift shall have any right, title, or interest therein, but the same may be seized and taken wherever found by any officer authorized to receive the same; and the possession of any such clothes, arms, military outfits, or accountrements, by any person not a soldier or officer of the United States, shall be prima facie evidence of such a sale, barter, exchange, pledge, loan, or gift as aforesaid.

Sec. 24. And be it further enacted, That every person not subject to the rules and articles of war who shall procure or entice, or attempt to procure or entice a soldier in the service of the United States to desert; or who shall harbor, conceal or give employment to a deserter, or carry him away, or aid in carrying him away, knowing him to be such; or who shall purchase from any soldier his arms, equipments, ammunition, uniform, clothing or any part thereof, and any captain or commanding officer of any ship or vessel, or any superintendent or conductor of any railroad other public conveyance carrying away any such soldier as one of his crew or otherwise knowing him to have deserted, or shall refuse to deliver him up to the others of his commanding officer, shall upon legal conviction, be fined at the discretion of any court having cognizance of the same in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars; and he shall be imprisoned not exceeding two years nor less than six mopths.

Sec. 26. And be it further enacted, That immediately after the passage of this act, the President shall issue his proclamation declaring that all soldiers now absent from their regiments without leave may return within a time specified to such place or places as he may indicate in his proclamation and be restored to their respective regiments without punishment, except the forfeiture of their pay and allowances during their absence, and all deserters who shall not return within the time specified by the President shall, upon being arrested, be punished as the law provides.

Sec. 27. And be it further enacted, That depositions of witnesses residing beyond the limits of the state territory, or district in which military courts shall be ordered to sit, may be taken in cases not capital by either party, and read in evidence; provided the same shall be taken upon reasonable notice to the opposite party and duly authenticated.

Sec. 28. And be it further enacted, That the judge advocate shall have power to appoint a reporter, whose duty it shall be to record the proceedings and testimony taken before military courts instead of the Judge advocate; and such reporter may take down such proceedings and testimony in the first instance in shorthand.—The reporter shall be sworn or affirmed faithfully to perform this duty before entering upon it.

Sec. 29. And be it further enacted, That the court, shall, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as shall appear to be just: Provided, That if the prisoner be in close confinement the trial shall not be delayed for a period longer than sixty days.

A River of Death.—Yazoo is said to be an Indian name, signifying River of Death. The water of the river is always of a stagnant, slimy thickness, and certain to produce an incurable disease when used any length of time. Nearly all of the men in Gen. Sherman's army who went up the Yazoo, were affected by the water, and some of the wounded who have returned are yet suffering from the disease there contracted. The river is properly named.

The pickets of the enemy along certain portions of the line on the opposite side of the Rappahannock are one-half negroes, one-half white men. The negroes are armed and uniformed the same as the whites. The fact appears to be beyond question. Only one hundred to one hundred and fifty yards intervene between our pickets and those of the enemy, and they are plainly to be distinguished without the aid of a glass.

Brave Southern Unionists.—The Petersburg Express tells us of a late rally of Unionist in Yadkin county, N. C., where a number of them took refuge in a Quaker church, and defending themselves with arms against rebel efforts to conscript them, killing two and losing two, the rest getting off safely to the mountains, under the lead of "Nazarine," who is denounced as a "bold, bad, and daring man."

Large Taxes.—It is stated that Robert P. Parrott, the manufacturer of the celebrated Parrott gun, has paid to the Government since Sept. 1, 1862, taxes under the National Revenue law to the amount of $17,243.

NOTICE TO CANDIDATES.—No announcement of name will, hereafter, be made without payment of Two DOLLARS—excepting Coroner, Auditor, &c., which will be ONE DOLLAR.

☞We have received numerous army letters for publication this week, all going to show that there is no demoralization there, and denouncing Northern traitors, and stating that home traitors are doing more harm than those in open rebellion, and that they will pay their respects to them when they get home. We have not space to publish them all this week, but will do so as soon as we can.

Vallandigham Nominated for President

On looking over the Star of last week, our attention was arrested by the startling announcement that the above named Traitor had received the nomination for President of the United States. It appears that the Democratic Convention assembled somewhere in New Sewickly township, in this county, on the 28th ult., and, after the selection of permanent offices, proceeded amongst other things, (too tedious to mention) to nominate a ticket of great importance, judging from the "Sauds" composing it, and by a series of resolutions silenced the cartridge-box, purged the ballot box, relieved the Supreme Court of a very grave question, by restoring the habeas corpus act and settling forever the difficulties growing out of arbitrary arrests. Who this fellow Habeas Corpus is, or what he was doing out in New Sewickly township, the Squires and Esquires do not inform us; but if the Convention made important decisions we hope they will report them in the Star as a guide to our fellow citizens in determining their rights under the Constitution.

Whether Vallandigham was present to accept the national honor thus conferred we are not informed as yet; but presume Bro. Long will give his readers the letter of acceptance next week. We fear, however, that when the last lunatic falls into the hands of the nominee for President, he may not be so highly flattered as the members of the Convention intended. Whether it was a mistake in the editor placing the name of their favorite candidate at the tail of the ticket for township officers of New Sewickly township, instead of at the head of the columns of the Star, we are not advised; or perhaps Jeff. Davis is their first choice, the Confederate States their first love, and when "Jeff" and "Val," and Habeas Corpus meet in a specific, they may conclude to have two governments, Vallandigham north, Davis south, and appoint habeas corpus commissioners, as conservators of the peace, guardians of the ballot-box, and some of the editorial fraternity hereabouts, the members of the Sewickly National Convention generally, together with the dirt-eating, nigger-hating, traitor-loving copperheads, who are crawling and creeping forth from their slimy hiding places, as members of their Cabinets. Then, and not till then, could we fully understand the dangerous sentiments concealed under the disguise of the editor or reporter for Vallandigham Convention. The editor of the Star, however, in some editorial remarks, endorses the proceedings of the Convention, and advises others to go and do likewise. Will any one deny, now, that we have treason in our midst?

The Attitude of England and France.

Notwithstanding the profession of neutrality on the part of the English government, the government and people of the United States must by this time be fully aware, that England especially is hostile to this Republic.—Upon the slightest mark of disrespect to their flag or whenever a mistake is made by one of our naval commanders, which the English government considers prejudicial to their rights, or derogatory to their boasted power and dignity, they at once put themselves in the most threatening attitude, and, through their Minister at Washington, demand instant apology and reparation. This is all well enough now, but our opinion is that with all the magnanimity and invincible courage of which the English have long been in the habit of boasting, they have not a particle of either true magnanimity or courage. Whilst we were a united and prosperous people, and whilst the old governments of Europe were looking on at our rapid advancement in all the true elements of greatness and power with astonishment, England was continually seeking closer and firmer friendship with us; but the moment that our intestine troubles commenced. England threw off all her pretended friendship, and had it not been for the fears that disturbed their peace and happiness of their ancient and powerful neighbor.—France, would, without doubt, have taken part with the southern traitors, for the purpose of humbling this government, that they might have no other power than France to compete with them for naval and commercial superiority, and that the people of their own country, who have been long groaning under the tyranny and oppression of their proud aristocracy. Instead of sympathizing with us, who in the days of our prosperity, they were pleased to call us cousins, and a part of the same great Anglo-Saxon race with themselves, and giving us such aid as we might have needed, they sympathized to the fullest extent, that such a mean and selfish goverment could, with those who would destroy this the last and great hope of the dearest hope of the down-trodden millions of the old world.—Who would not say that when an individual once prosperous, is placed in circumstances of adversity, his former friends who, while he was prosperous fawned upon and honored him, when his fortunes became changed, treat him with cold contempt, and join his enemies in destroying his fair name, and stripping him of everything he could hold dear, that those hollow-hearted friends were not only destitute of true magnanimity, but were base and cowardly.

It is now well ascertained, that a large fleet of iron-clad ships of war is publicly being built and fitted out for the openly-proclaimed purpose of piratically praying upon our commerce and aiding southern traitors in destroying our government, and raising the blockade. Already a number of these English pirates, under confederate colors, are roving over the seas and doing immense injury to the business of our country; more than that, British ports are open to, and swarming with, these pirates and blockade runners, under the eyes, and with the encouragement of, British officials. The Confederates have no trouble in procuring an allowance of arms, clothing and ammunition for their armies, and many of the necessaries and luxures of life, from Great Britain. We say, without fear of successful contradiction that had it not been for the base and cowardly conduct of the English government, this rebellion could not have continued for one year, even with the assistance of Northern traitors. It is true we do not, and we hope we never will, crave their friendship; but we have a right to demand justice from them, and if they persist longer in their unrighteous course in relation to us, to compel them to respect the rights of those who even yet have the power to maintain them. We hope that our government will promptly attend to this matter, and force England to either act strictly as a neutral power, or to declare war. We can then know what we have to meet, and then the world will see that a nation of freemen can maintain a just cause against any foe that may attempt to trample upon their rights.

France, or rather the Emperor of the French government, too, has shown anything else than a friendly disposition to us. Before, and ever since we came into existence as a nation, we have boasted of the strong and substantial feeling of friendship which have been ever exhibited by the French government and people to this country. Those feelings were fully reciprocated by every American; but of late there has been a great change.—France is now ruled by a cold-hearted selfish and ambitious Despot, who imagines he is attempting to imitate, the Great Napoleon. It is probable that his dreams of power and grandeur will soon have an end. That end has even now begun. The moment our troubles commenced, this mighty Emperor thought the time had come for him to put in his hand. Under some trifling and flimsy pretext, he has commenced a war upon our neighbor, Mexico, upon this continent. Napoleon, as he styles himself, found Mexico weak, as he supposed, and unable to resist his invincible power, and torn by leaders of different factions, believed that he could, by thus reducing it to a French province, acquire a strong foothold upon the American continent, and be able when we were ready to become a prey to his insatiable and unholy ambition, swallow up the whole, and so become the proud Ruler of the whole civilized world.—Had he contented himself with the exercise of his power in sustaining the temporal power of the Pope against the wishes of nine-tenths of his subjects, and of placing his Imperial heel upon the liberties of the smaller and weaker powers of Europe, and of frightening them once a year out of their senses, it might have been well enough; but his interference in American affairs will be found to be exceedingly unprofitable, and will probably be the cause of his own final overthrow. The French people are true, brave, generous and just people, and will not much longer tolerate the folly and wickedness of a weak, unprincipled ruler such as Napoleon.

In our next we will give our readers some view of the course adopted by the Emperor in relation to the United States.

☞We call the attention of our readers to the notice of Capt. Charles Stone, in another column of our paper, offering for rent the very desirable property at the Beaver Point, also that other property on the brow of the hill. Any persons wishing to rent either of these had better apply soon.

☞Friday next (20th inst.,) is the day for holding the township elections. Let our Republican friends turn out and see that good men are elected to fill the various office. Commence now to prepare for the struggle in October. The "copperheads" are at work.

☞The New York Express states that Secretary Chase was, on Friday, offered a loan of one hundred millions in gold by European parties, which at the current rates of exchange, would be equivalent to par in New York.

THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—Calculations carefully made leave no doubt that the Republicans will have a clear working majority in the next House, unless they are entirely overwhelmed in Maryland and Connecticut.

A Card.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 10, '63.

Mr. Imbrie: Some weeks ago a box containing Hospital stores came here directed to me. It was taken charge of by Quartermaster Hale, and appropriated to the use of the sick soldiers in this place.

I have not yet received any letter or other intimation indicating by whom it was sent. I take this method of informing the kind donors that it has been received, and how it has been used.

THO. NICHOLSON.

EDITOR OF THE ARGUS:—Dear Sir:—Through the medium of your paper I would enquire what has become of the City Fathers, that they permit the beautiful green sward in the public square to be defaced and rooted up, destroying its beauty for years to come? Are their tender hearts moved by sympathy for the gentle porker, that they permit him to "root pig or die," or are they like Sam Slick's farmer who had no horse to plough his corn,

Who hitched his pigs and his old sow,
The corn was ploughed but the dear knows how.

For the Argus.

Mr. Editor: In looking over the Receipts and Expenditures of the County, I do not see any credit to the Pittsburg, Ft. Wayne & Chicago R R., for a donation to the County, in aid of paying Bounties to Soldiers. Have the Commissioners overlooked that matter? or has it passed into other hands for distribution?

Will the County commissioner's enlighten the Tax-payers on the above subject, and oblige many

TAX PAYERS.

"Root Hog or die!"

MR. EDITOR:—On walking over your once beautiful commons our attention was directed to the fact that his Swineship had been making sad havoc of the green sward which always, in summer time, has adorned Beaver. Whether the City Fathers have granted him license to perforate the soil at will, without yoke on the neck or ring in the nose, this deponent saith not. But we would much rather see the command above given reversed, that it might be understood—"Hog if you root you shall die!" Certainly something should be done to prevent the mischief referred to; it is a shame and disgrace to have the ornament of the village thus destroyed. Will not the proper authorities, therefore, adopt stringent measures for its prevention.

Yours,
PERAMBULATOR.

Army Correspondence.

NEWPORT NEWS, Feb. 26, 1863.

Dear Sir: Having reen a letter addressbd tc Mr. Andrew Reed, requesting the opinion of the army in regard to this war, I take the privilege of writing a few lines to you on that subject. As far as the demoralization of the army is concerned, there is nothing of it. The same feeling exists now as did at first to put down this rebellion. None of us thought at the beginning of this war that it would ever last half so long as it has. But secession sympathisers at home have done much to prolong this war. I would rather fight two in the field as one at home. They would do a great deal less harm were they to go over to the rebels at once, and not crow over Federal defeats and Rebel victories. But everything has an end, and so have they. Some people complain a great deal about the President's Emancipation Proclamation; but I think it one of the wisest things he has ever done. The South depends a great deal on her slave labor. It is the slaves that have built their fortifications and done their hard work, and without them they can do nothing.—Now if we can rely on rebel newspaper reports, they have already had to hire their negroes in certain places. This shows what the Proclamation has done already. Now, the question arises, how are we to get their negroes? We can easily solve that difficulty. As fast as our forces follow the rebels up, the negroes will come to us for protection. We have got a great many in this way, and we can get a good many more. Slavery commenced this war and will end it. I am for using all possible means of putting an end to it. Let those who sympathise with the South beware, lest, when peace shall reign in our land, they will be marked as were the tories of the Revolution.

Yours, respectfully,
THOS. WATT.

CAMP AT MINER'S HILL.

Dear Cousin: Your letter of the 2nd inst., is before me—contents noted, etc. We have been relieved from active duty in the field, and are here, 2½ miles from old Camp Pierpont, and 8 miles from Washington, D. C., to rest and recruit, and assist in keeping Washington safe. Our place on the front is filled by new troops from here. We have now good quarters, and are getting along splendidly. We have had some very rough weather here of late. Rain, snow, and lots of mud, have become very common—Good health prevails among the boys. No doubt you feel like asking me what I think about the war, what hope of ultimate success, etc. Well, to tell the truth, prospects for the future do sometimes look dark, indeed; but still, with me, at least, hope is not entirely gone. This may just be the hour just before the dawn. I will hope on, hope ever, and still trust in Him who doeth all things well. Tell all you see that every man of principle, (I don't mean things that are sometimes called by that—we have a few of them here,) but every man in the army is for the Union, now and forever. We feel that there can be no neutrals. We hold that every man must uphold the Government, and he that does not is a Traitor—vilest of the vile. Such traitors cry "Peace! Peace!" when there is and can be no peace. We have sacrificed too much, have done too much now to listen to anything short of entire submission to our government. There may have been errors committed by the Administration; but the very existence of our beloved land is at stake,—we will save our country and then let the ballot-box decide the rest.

Your cousin,
WILL.

Our comrades and messmates droop and fade away, and we are called upon to perform for them the last ceremony of earth.

Many are the homes made sad and sorrowful, and many the hearts that are made to ache with yearnings for those to whom they are near and dear, who have became the victims to that foul destroyer—Disease.

All honor to the dead, who sleep in glory's grave enshrouded with laurels of bravery, by friends and by countrymen for the manner in which they endured trials and privations until stricken down by the destroying angel—Death.

MR. EDITOR:—What a pity that the Borough authorities of Beaver did not pass an ordinance, or enforce one already in existence, that would protect the beautiful lawn or common in the Public Square from the digging propensities of the droves of swine let loose upon the public.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

HARRISBURG, Mar. 13, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—The time and talent of the House this week has been devoted to the Pa. R. R. Co., Col. Hopkins having fully convinced himself that such a course would lead to the Executive Mansion. He evidently writes, talks and speaks as though all else beneath the sun was of no account. But with due deference to the venerable and pious man there are other things worthy of some attention. Coal and Cord-wood are both useful in their way. When weighed and measured often there is money in them. The bill as it passed the House is about as follows, viz: Col. Hopkins' bill after the enacting clause is all struck out; a section adopted taxing all R. R. Companies, &c., on their freight; another directing the Attorney General to bring suit against the Pa. R. R. Co. for the amount due on tonnage tax, when the act was passed repealing that tax in 1861. I fear there is some awkward wording in this last section, which may do mischief to the State.

In the Senate but little interesting to your people has been done of late.

In the debate relative to the use of the Senate for those Democrats of the olden school, Johnston and Wright, your Senator made a strong, spirited, telling speech. He is a young man and a young member, but he has the true metal in him. I would like he would oftener take part in debate—There is, the Lord knows, plenty of talking in both Houses, but argument and logic are scarce.

The members of both Houses yesterday paid a visit to the great ore bank in Lebanon County. This is a much safer bank to visit than the one with the Scripture name. This ore bank is one of the greatest mines of wealth in Pennsylvania or perhaps in the world. It contains ore enough, I have no doubt, to make all the iron the United States will need for the next century.

The Board of Revenue Commissioners are working rapidly, and are doing a good business for the State.—Some persons, totally ignorant of the working of this Board, wish it repealed. Others feeling its salutary influences wish to have its elevating operation stopped.

Your county I learn, is fixed for the next three years at the figures of your own Commissioner. Butler county has been promoted. She deserved this long ago. Allegheny too, has received favorable attention—This is also right and praiseworthy. The Board is composed mainly of good men. They had, at first, an intense anxiety to legislate, but that is now given up and they are doing their proper work well.

A great Union League has been formed in this city. Many also in other parts of the State. The Northern traitors are shaking at the signs of the times. They have reason to tremble. Traitor will be an ugly brand for them to bear through all future life. They have made their own record, however, and should not complain! The old stars and stripes will soon float over all the old territory. Good men and good women are praying for our country, and our brave defenders. God will not utterly forsake us. If we turn to Him in this our day of trouble with true love and repentance, he will remember us in mercy. It can not be that this great government "the land of the free and the home of the brave," this asylum for the oppressed of all nations and climes can be put down by a gang of slaveholders and a few abettors in the North. No, no; it can not, will not be. Cheer up, desponding patriot. By all the memories of Bunker Hill, Lexington, Trenton, Valley Forge Lundy's Lane, New Orleans, &c., we would inspire you never to despair.—God is merciful and just; our resources are great and almost untouched.—Tens of thousands of stout arms and brave hearts are in reserve.—From every village, hamlet and hill top in the North, the oaths of freemen are ascending to Heaven—"Our government must and shall be preserved."

The brave boys in the army are all right; no matter what traitor editors may publish. I have as extensive a correspondence with "the boys," as any humble man. Every letter to me breathes true devotion to the flag their fathers loved. They understand the traitors at home, and often allude to them. There is a day of settlement coming for traitors, South and North. The wicked rebellion will soon be put down. Then will come on the great case of returning braves vs. the traitors of the North. What plea will they use? What can they say? Can they deny their secret meetings, their resolutions, their speeches in and out of the Legislature, their editorials, their communications, their sneers, their insults?

It may be well for them to ponder on these things, ere it be too late.

Destruction of Forts Herman and Henry.—These two Forts, on the Tennessee river, were evacuated and destroyed on the 6th inst., by the Federal troops, as they are liable to overflow, and not desirable for offensive or defensive operations. Their armaments, stores, etc., were removed to Fort Donelson. It is said that other and stronger works are to be erected in the vicinity.

Union Meeting in Darlington, Beaver County.

DARLINGTON, Mar. 10th '63.

The citizens of the Borough and vicinity held a Union Meeting in the Free Church. The meeting was organized by calling S. G. Caughey to the Chair and appointing R. S. Imbrie Secretary. Rev. Clark, of New Castle, being present, addressed the meeting in an able manner, after which a vote of thanks were tendered him for his instructive lecture.

The following preamble and resolutions were offered by Dr. S. M. Ross, which were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, The rebellion still exists in our land, and the armies and fortifications exhibit formidable proportions, to execute their unrighteous purpose of destroying this fair fabric of constitutional liberty; therefore

Resolved, That by our sympathies, our contributions and our prayers, we will give every encouragement to our brave soldiers to fight with indomitable courage the rebels wherever they find them, until they shall be either slain or vanquished.

Resolved, That we will yield our most hearty support to our Government in its honest, judicious efforts, to suppress the rebellion in the South, and discountenance treason in the North.

Resolved, That we will do everything that honest and loyal hearts can do, to encourage loyalty, and unanimity of co operation and in the army and at home, in carrying out the measures of our government till the end of the war, while with devoted hearts we declare, Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable.

A committee was then appointed to Draft a Constitution for a Union League.

The meeting then adjourned to meet in the Academy in Darlington, March 19th, 1863.

Court Proceedings.

Commonwealth vs. James Spencer and Wm. Cameron. Indictment for murder. Verdict guilty of manslaughter, but recommended to the mercy of the Court. Motion for new trial and reasons filed. Also motion for a new trial in the case of Samuel Spencer. Continued until the argument Court.

Commonwealth vs. Daniel Barlington. Indictment for aiding and assisting the escape of Eli F Sheets, a convicted felon found at November term. Sentence deferred till next term.

Same vs. George Brown. Indictment for malicious mischief. Defendant, ordered to be discharged from his recognizances.

Robert M'Clane vs. Henry Brown and Shuder. Verdict for plaintiff for $542 damages.

CINCINNATI, March 16.—The Gazette's Vicksburg despatch says:—The Yazoo Pass expedition captured twenty-six steamboats, eighteen of which, however, were destroyed. The gunboats have not but feel, that in the remarks which, in behalf of these officers, I have been proper to make, I have only arrived above Haines' Bluff, and would soon commence an attack.

Rumors are rife of the evacuation of Vicksburg. It is supposed that the greater part of the rebel force will go to Chattanooga and endeavor vainly to suppress incipient mutiny. Whom overwhelm Rosecrans. Gen. M'Clernand's troops were compelled to embark for Milliken's Bend, sixteen miles above Vicksburg, owing to high water.

Recent operations at Lake Providence and elsewhere, resulted in the inundating over a hundred miles of Louisiana territory, destroying millions of property. The guerillas are completely drowned out. A refugee from Georgia arrived at Murfreesboro on yesterday. He reports terrible destitution in Northern Alabama and in Georgia.

BOSTON, March 13.—A despatch from the office of the Concord, N. H. Statesman gives returns from all the towns of New Hampshire except thirteen, which gave last year 414 votes for Berry and 611 for Clark.—Taking that vote for a basis, the majority in the State against the Democratic candidate is about seven hundred. The total vote cast this year was about 65,000; at the election of last year it was 62,000. For Congress in the First District, Marcy, Dem., has from 50 to 75 majority. In the 2d District Rollins, Rep. has about 300 majority. In the 3d District Patterson, Rep., is elected by about 500 majority. The Governor's Council stands three Republicans and two Democrats. In the Legislature, the Senate stands nine Republicans and three Democrats, and in the House the Republicans will have from forty-five to fifty majority.

GEN. HOOKER AND GEN. PITZ BEFORE THE WAR COMMITTEE.—Gen. Hooker was examined on Wednesday before the War Committee. The first question propounded was as to what cause he attributed the failure of the movement on the Peninsula. He replied: "As I am on my oath, I must answer the question. The failure of that movement was owing to the incompetency of the commanding General.

Brig. Gen. Hunt was examined to-day before the War Committee. Gen. Hunt has served as Chief of Artillery through all the campaigns of the Army of the Potomac, and his evidence will be the most important yet adduced by the Committee relating to the operations of that army.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 16.—Eight hundred paroled prisoners en route to Chicago were detained at Richmond, Ind., last night, and while there completely demolished the office of the Jeffersonian, an anti-war sheet. They arrived here to-night and threatened the Sentinel. The military authorities placed guards to prevent a disturbance.

A large indignation meeting was held here to-night, in regard to an article in the Cincinnati Enquirer (copperhead) insulting to soldiers' families.

Sword Presentation.

NEWBERN, N. C. Feb. 28, 1863.

Major A. W. Taylor, of the 101st Pa. Vols., was on the 26th inst. presented by the line officers of his Regiment, with an elegant Sword, Sash, Belt and Gloves—worth eighty dollars—a merited compliment, which has never been paid to any other officer in the Regiment.

The 101st, which is now stationed at this place, is one of the old battle worn Regiments—its decimated ranks gives proof of the hardships and fierce conflicts through which it has passed.

Major Taylor is one of the officers who has been associated with it since its first organization, and this testimonial gives assurance of the high estimation in which he is held by his fellow-officers.

The presentation was made, in the presence of the Regiment, by Capt. L. T. Fetterman, of Co. E, in a neat and appropriate speech.

PRESENTATION SPEECH OF CAPT. FETTERMAN.

MAJOR:—Having the honor to be called upon to represent the officers of the 101st Regiment, Pa. Vols., allow me to say, that during your association with us as an officer, from the first organization of this regiment, you have by your devotion to our common cause, your valor on the battle-field, your natural goodness of heart, and your attention to the wants of your command, merited and won our confidence and high esteem.—You bear upon your person honorable marks received in one of the battles of the memorable Peninsula campaign. At Kingston you were the first target that drew the enemy's fire, and by your coolness and undinching valor, as the commander of our regiment in that and other engagements during the expedition to Goldsboro, you won the highest admiration of your entire command.

As a reward of merit, I present to you, in behalf of the officers of this Regiment, this Sword, Sash, Belt and Gloves. This Sword is yet untried, but may it prove as true in the hour of peril, as we have always found him, to whom we have the honor of presenting it. Your record as an officer and soldier, gives us sufficient assurance that the lustre of this will never be tarnished by any act dishonor on the part of its wearer.

When you, wind this Sash around your body may you realize that you are entwining the affections of your officers and men about you—but which, unlike this sash, cannot be cast aside at will, but which will alone can sever.

That your future career may be one of bright and continued success, is the ardent wish of all.

CAPTAIN:—In accepting at your hand this beautiful and valuable gift, permit me to assure you that it is with feelings of pleasure and pride not ordinary character, though I can not but feel, that in the remarks which, in behalf of these officers, I have been proper to make, I have only associated with me in the presenting of this Sash and Belt, you have paid me a compliment, of which I have no claim. When after many months of toil and privation in the common cause—after passing side by side through the death-storm of more than one sanguine field of battle—through the disappointments and horrors of one of the most severe and disastrous campaigns known in the military history of any nation, in the perilous scenes and changes of camp life my fellow-officers have honored my character as a soldier and my conduct as a commanding officer, and it is true, I assure you, most gratifying; and when the memory of the many painful scenes through which we have passed, has been softened by the healing hand of time, when the blood of patriots has ceased to flow, should it be my fortune to carry it with me to the walks of peaceful life, it shall ever remind me not only of that enduring friendship which prompted its bestowal, but also of the duty which I owe to my country and my fellow men.

Accept my most sincere and heartfelt thanks, for this high and unmerited compliment.

LEGISLATIVE.—On Friday, the following joint resolutions relative to the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, were introduced into the Senate by Mr. Lamberton:

Whereas, In response to the application of the Executive to the War Department, asking that the remnant of that gallant body of men, the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, be ordered to Harrisburg to fill its ranks, the Secretary of War replied that "If one's such request be acceded to, all similar applications must be granted;" and,

Whereas, The War Department has since adopted a different policy in permitting the Second New Hampshire Regiment, alleged to be six hundred strong, to recruit its ranks, or for other purposes therefore.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to again ask of the War Department that the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps be permitted to return to this State for the purpose of recruiting its decimated ranks, and perfecting its organization.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 14.—We have information from Yorktown that Stoneman's cavalry are making some movement about Gloucester Point.—Thirty five Confederate prisoners arrived at Fortress Monroe this morning per the steamboat Louisiana, Lieut. Hall in charge, from Fort M'Henry. They will soon be sent to City Point for exchange.—From the best authority we are informed that there is no prospect of an attack by the rebels at Blackwater at present.

it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

WIVES, AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Do not put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chilly night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT all danger is averted. A few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and cure the most depressing of DANGEROUS COLDS. Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Professor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time in one special day there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment, in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the soldier in Camp, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Let it be those I have met perish not, but also place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more cannot foresee, by restoring them to health and strength, they will succeed in the moment of need, where between brave and coward, between their Country and ruin, and their home in safety, for all the casualties of the battle field, many thousand of lives would be saved, which would otherwise perish for want of proper attention.

☞ CAUTION.—Spurious imitations of the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a watery gas in every leaf of the genuine, and if the water test does not show the words distinctly, the Medicines are spurious. Sold by the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT,

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other

Nervous and Chronic Diseases,

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases, may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending, douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES

OF THE

BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE,

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases, to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER, OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES,

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRENFIELD, MASS. 20th Dec., 1856.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you invented it, and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your Pectoral is the best remedy we possess for the cure of whooping cough, croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people.

BIRDAH CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 2d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your Pectoral by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your Cherry Pectoral is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE CO., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your Cherry Pectoral for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the Cherry Pectoral affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your Cherry Pectoral has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill; for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all around us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:—

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best and they should have it.
